They Get Four Sacks of Coin from the Express Car.

AMOUNTED TO $1,500.

The Desperadoes Make Their Escape on the Engine.

It is Then Reversed and Sent Tearing Back.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12 .- The train robseven miles beyond Davisville, at a crossing known as Sheep Camp, was a daring erime. Four sacks of coin were secured from the express car, and messenger Jack Paige barely escaped with his life. The loot amounted to about $1,500. En- | track. gineer Bill Scott of the Ogden Overland, that left San Francisco at 6 p. m. and his tireman, were forced at the muzzles of revolvers to carry coin sacks from the express car to the engine. Then the robbers uncoupled the engine and rode o'clock, tied him hand and foot, stole $5.50 from him and left him helpless at the side of the track. The track walker was just pulling out of Sheep Camp and the Overland was already in sight. With the track walker's lantern the robbers signale 1 No. 3 to stop. Scott slowed up, but did not come to a standstill until the explosion of dynamits bonbs under the engine warned him that it was useless to proceed further. Sprang on the Tender. By this time two robbers were on the engine. They sprang on from opposite sides of the track and began shooting at once. The passengers and train hands say quite a number of shots were fired before anybody knew what it was all about. The roobers made the engineer and fireman dismount and walked them back with rifles at their heads to the rear of the express car, where the victims were ordered to uncouple the train.

This was done speedily and before the expressman, mail clerk or any of the train hands knew what was going on, the engine was speeding shead and drawing only the two forward mail cars and Wells-Fargo & Co. sexpress car. They went shead five miles, with the robbers engine was speeding shead and drawing only the two forward mail cars and Wells Fargo & Co. sexpress car. Flourished Dynamite Bombs. Engineer Scott and the fireman were marched back to the express car, where the robbers made a demand of Messenger Palge to open the door. He refused. "By ___, we'll shoot the engineer and fireman, if you don't open in a hurry." said one robber, the taller of the two. while the other masked man held two dynamite bombs up to view in the clear moonlight, and threatened to blow the express car to pieces unless it was open-

Still Paige hesitated and some shots were fired through the glass door of the car at him, one of which grazed his temglass. Then the engineer called out to party. Paige to open the door. "We're covered with guns and they will kill us if you don't open," said

Still Paige desisted and began to fire through the door, but his aim was wild and again Scott in fear of his life called CZAREWITCH'S MARRIAGE on the messenger to open, saying that the robbers would surely blow him up unless he gave up.

The messenger finally opened the door. One robber then covered the messenger and the engineer and fireman with his $200 in silver and two small sacks of An Optic reporter sought an introduction to Judge J. R. Johnson today, and found him an elegant gentleman in every sense of the term. The judge was here in 1880, and he could not express in language too strong, his admiration for the growth and improvement of the town during the intervening years. The realdence of the judge is in Topeka, where he has occupied worthily and well the highest places on the judicial beach. His present position, as master in chancery for the Atchison road, devolves upon him a consideration of all the cases arising against that system proper, excluding the A. & P., and the Frisco and the Colorado Midland.

He has charge of all the monthly receipts and disbursements of the company, his duty being to see that these are correct and legal to the fraction of a cent.
